

THE HUMMINGBIRD

"The Daly Review":

March 25th, we held a Music Workshop that focused on the student's expressions while performing. Mrs. Tracie Jiggetts did a beautiful job connecting to the children with a large personality that captivated the students from the very beginning. One could hear laughter and the wheels turning as Ms. Tracie challenged the students to think outside of the box and portray emotions through their faces alone. I am excited to see which students took to heart her lessons on expression and see them shine on stage, Sunday, April 23rd.

Our final rehearsal is next week at the Pantherplex. Please know that this Saturday, April 22nd rehearsal is mandatory, and if a child is not present, they will not be able to perform on Sunday, April 23rd.

Choir Coordinators will be collecting music from the Chorus Members either April 18 or April 22, so be sure to bring your binder to these final rehearsal dates.

For those who signed up to travel with us in the Summer 2020 to Ireland to work with Rollo Dilworth, please see that we are trying again and meeting Rollo in Puerto Rico Summer 2024. Details can be found in the box next to this one. 😊

Carmina Burana Performance, April 30!

Our 22 volunteers to sing for Carmina Burana are doing a wonderful job memorizing their music for this concert. We will be holding a mandatory rehearsal with the Masterworks Choral Director on Tuesday, April 25th from 6-7pm in the Grace Lutheran Church's Sanctuary, and then the final rehearsal/performance day in on Sunday, April 30th. Please have your chorus member arrive at Baker Memorial Chapel in their formal uniform by 1:15pm to be in place and ready to sing in the mandatory rehearsal with percussion and piano by 1:30pm. The concert begins at 3pm and should last about 90 mins. The Chorus members do not need a ticket to be a part of this performance, but each family should have already been provided one free ticket for the person who drives them to the event. Additional tickets are being sold in advance for $15 during April's Tuesday night Children's Chorus Rehearsals, and they will be sold for $18 at the door of the Baker Memorial Chapel on McDaniel's Campus. Thank you for helping us meet our mission by performing with this community!
