

THE HUMMINGBIRD

"The Daly Review":

What a beautiful October we had! The weather was gorgeous, our costumes fun, our attendance was up at each rehearsal, and we have been fitted for our uniforms. Thank you to our General Manager, Dianne Delgado, for all of her hard work pulling each child aside to receive their formal and informal uniforms. Formal uniforms entail pieces that vary per choir, but the informal uniform is the same for everyone, which is their red chorus polo, blue jeans (without holes), and sneakers. Be sure to purchase the extra pieces that your child will need!

We have some events coming up where these uniforms will be needed:

Nov 18: Our LPVs will be performing with guests from Paide, Estonia. This country is Westminster's Sister City and a long time donor of the chorus will be hosting a vocal Trio from Estonia and the LPVs will sing music from their December repertoire in their formal uniforms.

Nov 24: All Choirs will be in their formal uniforms for our Photo Music Workshop and our DBs will perform for the Grace Luthera Church during their 11am service.

Nov 30: Volunteers will sing carols in their informal uniforms at the Westminster Historical Society at 3pm and then at 4pm volunteers will walk in the parade wrapped in lights.

TEXAS ROADHOUSE Fundraiser! Please consider purchasing the TXRH Gift Cards this coming holiday season. For all gift cards sold, we will get 10% back. We appreciate you considering!
